Now, if many outrages have been committed beyond all doubt, some one could be specified, and the General says he has the proofs of combinations to drive the negro from the State. So here is a case with the proof. Why has not the Legislature luquired into this matter? A committee was raised to Inquire into the statements of General Falks; but these statements of General Palmer, in point of the proof of the blacks, the existence of the statement of the blacks, the existence of the militian of the blacks of the militian of the blacks of the militian of the blacks, the existence of the militian of the blacks of the militian of the blacks of the militian of the blacks, the existence of the militian of the blac

State? Is not the Government wrong in placing it here? Is it not a lact that, in compressional measure establishing of the writ of habear corpus now in this State; but these statements should be investigated by the Legislature.

No doubt one can hear rumors enough of wrongs without remedies, and sometimes get what seem to be proofs. We have read a number of such stories from the South; but sift them to the bottom, and, like the lad's hundred cats, they come down to our cat and another cut. Let the whole matter be inquired into, so that the Legislature may see what wrongs exist and what remedies are needed.

At the same time, if these wrongs exist, we should ask what is the use of the military and Freedmen's Bureaus? They red, exist and what remedies are needed,
